

DOOR OR WINDOW SENSOR

Door and window safety sensors work with a sensor and a magnet. The sensor is installed on the window or door frame and the magnet is attached to the window or door itself. When the alarm is armed, a simple circuit is connected by a magnetic current that sends a message to the alarm when the current is disturbed. Opening or closing the door or window disturbs the current, the alarm is sounded, and you are alerted.

POLAR